

The background of the image is a solid, muted reddish-brown color. It is covered with a dense, repeating pattern of white, three-dimensional, ornate shapes. These shapes are reminiscent of traditional Indian mandala art or intricate carvings. They include various floral motifs, heart shapes, and complex geometric patterns. Some shapes have small holes or perforations, giving them a lace-like appearance. The shapes are arranged in a way that they overlap and fill the entire frame, creating a rich, textured visual field.

MAKING OF A MANDALA

